Meeting 2 Study Questions

Marshall, Taylor R. Thomas Aquinas in 50 Pages: A quick Layman's Guide to Thomism. Electronic copyright 2013 by Taylor R. Marshall,

• pp 38-41 (Supernatural Theological Virtues)

Lagrange, Garrigou. Three Ages of the Interior Life, Vol. 1. (Rockford, IL: 1947), Chapter 3,

Article II, "The Theological Virtues" and

Text: pp 61-66 or access it from http://christianperfection.info/tta7.php#bk2

Article III, "The Moral Virtues"

Text: pp 66-77 or access it from http://christianperfection.info/tta8.php

CCC 1812-1829

Farrell, O.P. Walter. My Way of Life. Part II Ch. 7 pp 235-240

1. How does man acquire the three Supernatural theological virtues? (Marshall p. 38)

2. How does Aquinas explain the development of the moral life in relation to big moral decisions? (Marshall pp. 40-41)

3. List the three Theological Virtues. Why are they called "Theological" (that is, what is their "formal object")? (Lagrange Article II p. 61, Farrell p. 238, CCC1812)

4. Lagrange says that supernatural faith is like being able to hear a "symphony of mysteries." List some of those mysteries. (Lagrange Article II p. 65) 5. What does the supernatural virtue of hope enable us to do? (Lagrange Article II p. 65) 6. Explain why charity is the greatest of the three Theological Virtues. Will we have faith in heaven? (Lagrange Article II p. 66 Marshall pp. 39-40)