

Questions for Chapter 8: Anger's Smoldering with Fury

1. Anger is an emotion that can be a virtue or a vice. Define anger, and explain how it can be both vice and virtue. (page 93-94)
2. Can a lack of anger be a vice? Can wrath be virtuous? (Page 95-98)
3. What does St. Thomas teach are the three types of anger?(page 99)
4. Name the daughters of anger. There are many other vices connected to the daughters of anger. What are some of the connections that you found most interesting? (page 99-104)